OFFICERS

HOWARD LINCOLN

Chairman & Chief Executive Officer

A key player in the formation of the ownership group that saved the Mariners for Seattle in 1992, Howard Lincoln was named Chairman and Chief Executive Officer on Sept. 27, 1999.

On Feb. 14, 2000 Lincoln retired from his position as chairman of Nintendo of America, Inc. to devote his full efforts to the Mariners. Lincoln joined Nintendo as its senior vice president and general counsel in January 1983. In February 1994, he was elected to the board of Nintendo of America, Inc. and appointed chairman of the company.

Philanthropy plays an important role in Lincoln's life. In addition to his strong support of the Mariners Care Foundation, he is a trustee and former chairman of the Children's Hospital Foundation. He was the Campaign Chair of United Way of King County's 2003/04 Annual Campaign. Lincoln is also a board member of The Washington Roundtable and the Board of Trustees of Western Washington University and serves on the boards of ArtsFund and the Bellevue Boys & Girls Club.

Lincoln is a graduate of the University of California at Berkeley, and holds a law degree from Boalt Hall, the University of California School of Law. Following graduation from law school, Lincoln served as a Lieutenant in the U.S. Navy Judge Advocate General's Corps from 1966 to 1970. He practiced law in Seattle from 1970 to 1983. He and his wife, Grace, reside on Mercer Island. Their son, Brad, and his wife, Kim, have two children: Ethan and Benjamin.

CHUCK ARMSTRONG

President & Chief Operating Officer

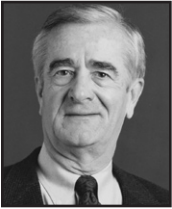

Chuck Armstrong was named President and Chief Operating Officer of the Seattle Mariners on June 29, 1992. Armstrong was previously president of the Mariners from 1983 to 1989 and 2009 is his 24th season as President of the Mariners. He also served as Interim Athletic Director for the University of Washington in 1991.

Born and raised in Louisville, Kentucky, Armstrong earned a B.S. degree in Industrial Engineering in 1964 from Purdue University where he was recognized as Outstanding Senior Man. He graduated from Stanford University Law School in 1967 and then served over three years on active duty in the U.S. Navy.

Following his tour in the Navy, Armstrong joined a major Los Angeles law firm in 1970. From 1977-1980 he was president of a leading national furniture manufacturer and importer. From 1980 to 1983, he served as president and chief executive officer of Arnel Management, an Orange County, CA, real estate investment company.

Armstrong and his wife, Susan, make their home in Medina. They have three children: daughters Dorrie (husband Ryan Schneider) and Katherine (husband Mark Hochstetler); and a son, Chuck. The Armstrongs also have three grandchildren: twin granddaughters, Emerson and Mallory, and a granddaughter Audrey.

The Armstrongs are active in numerous civic, charitable and educational activities.

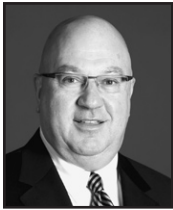

JOHN ELLIS

Chairman Emeritus

A life-long resident of the Seattle area, John Ellis helped lead the efforts to keep Major League Baseball in the Pacific Northwest. Upon transfer of the Mariners franchise to the new ownership group, Ellis became its first chairman and CEO, serving from June 29, 1992 until Sept. 27, 1999 when he was named Chairman Emeritus. Ellis continues as a member of the Mariners Board of Directors. During the seven full seasons of his tenure, the Mariners only finished below .500 once, while winning two Division titles and narrowly missing a third. Community and fan support improved enormously: attendance grew from 1,651,398 in 1992 to 3,507,975 in 2001. The greatest accomplishment under his leadership was the construction of our world-class ballpark, Safeco Field.

In June, 1999 Ellis was unanimously elected to the MLB Executive Council. He's currently a member of the International, Ownership and Compensation & Finance Committees of MLB and chair of its BELP II Committee. John started his career as a lawyer with Perkins Coie in 1953 and then joined Puget Sound Power & Light Company (now Puget Sound Energy) in 1970, where he served variously as President, CEO and Chairman until his retirement in 1993. He's been the recipient of numerous awards – including having been named one of the University of Washington's outstanding graduates during the 20th century and inducted into the Junior Achievement Puget Sound Business Hall of Fame. He and his wife, Doris, have four children and eight grandchildren – all Mariners fans.

JACK ZDURIENCIK

Executive Vice President & General Manager, Baseball Operations

Jack Zduriencik (zur-EN-sik) was named as the eighth General Manager in Seattle Mariners history after being hired on Oct. 22, 2008.

In his first months on the job, he re-organized the Mariners Baseball Operations, Scouting and Player Development staffs, and has added talent to both the Major League and minor league rosters.

His first trade with the Mariners was a three-team, 12-player deal in which Seattle acquired seven players from the New York Mets and Cleveland Indians. His ensuing off-season moves were built around his goal of accumulating talent in the Mariners Major League and minor league system.

Zduriencik spent the past nine seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers. He was promoted to Vice President – Special Assistant to the G.M. for Player Personnel on Jan. 15, 2008. He spent the previous two years (2006-2007) as Special Assistant to the G.M./Director of Amateur Scouting after being hired by the Brewers as Director of Scouting on Oct. 25, 1999.

He is credited with helping to re-stock the Brewers minor league system with talent through the draft.

Following the 2007 season, Zduriencik was named Executive of the Year by Baseball America, becoming the first non-GM to ever win the award.

A 25-year veteran in Major League Baseball, Zduriencik worked with four MLB organizations prior to joining the Mariners. In addition to the Brewers, Zduriencik was Director of International Scouting & Special Assistant to the GM for the LA Dodgers in 1999. Zduriencik spent two stints with the New York Mets, beginning his career in New York as an area scout (1983-89), scouting crosschecker (1990, 1994-95), Minor League Operations Director (1996-97) and Special Assistant to the GM (1998). He also worked as the Mets Advance Scout during its playoff runs in 1986 and 1988. Between stints in New York, Zduriencik was Director of Scouting for the Pittsburgh Pirates from 1991-93.

Prior to beginning his work in Major League Baseball, Zduriencik coached football and baseball at Clairton High School in Pittsburgh from 1977-80 and at Tarpon Springs High School in Florida from 1980-82. He coached football and baseball at the collegiate level at Austin Peay State University (Clarksville, TN) from 1975-77.

Jack and his wife, Debbie, reside in Bellevue, WA. They have one adult daughter, Kimberly, who is a nurse in Pittsburgh. Zduriencik has a bachelor's degree in education from Cal-State Pennsylvania and a Masters Degree in physical education from Austin Peay State University. He is a member of the Pennsylvania American Legion Hall of Fame and the Lawrence County (PA) Hall of Fame.

LEE PELEKODAS

Vice President, Associate General Manager

Now in his 30th year with the Mariners, Lee Pelekoudas was promoted to his current position on Nov. 1, 2005. Lee is responsible for the coordination of players contract negotiations, tracking Major League player movement, managing the club's player transactions within the MLB administrative rules and the Major League payroll. He works closely with Jack Zduriencik and Tony Blengino on the make-up of the Major League roster.

Pelekoudas served as the Mariners Interim General Manager from June 16, 2008 until October 21, 2008.

Pelekoudas joined the Mariners in December of 1979 as the Director of Team Travel. He served in that position until his move to Director of Baseball Administration in October, 1987 and was promoted to Senior Director in April, 1995. He was promoted to Vice President of Baseball Administration in September, 1997.

Lee was drafted out of Homestead (Sunnyvale, CA) High School in 1969 by the Montreal Expos in the 23rd round of the draft, but chose to attend Arizona State University where he was a three-year letterwinning pitcher (1970-72). He was a member of the 1972 Sun Devils club that went to the College World Series and posted a 64-6 record. He graduated from ASU in 1973 with a degree in journalism. Pelekoudas worked in private business for four years before joining the PCL Portland Beavers in 1978.

Pelekoudas and his wife, Terri, reside in Fall City, WA, and have two sons: Chris, a scout for the Mariners, and Bryan. Lee's father, Chris, was a National League umpire for 16 seasons.

BOB ENGLE*Vice President, International Operations

Bob Engle was promoted to his current position in September, 2007. He was named Director of International Operations in October, 2004. Bob oversees all aspects of the Mariners international scouting, including spending considerable time each season working in Latin America. All of the Mariners International Scouts report directly to Engle. Bob was originally hired by the Mariners as Sr. Advisor to the VP & GM of Baseball Operations on Jan. 28, 2000.

Prior to joining the Mariners, Engle had spent the previous 24 years with the Toronto Blue Jays. Originally hired in 1976 as the Eastern Scouting Supervisor, he was promoted to Eastern Regional Scouting Director in 1982 and to Director of Scouting in 1990. As Director of Scouting he was responsible for all of the Blue Jays scouting activities, as well as their June draft preparations.

Engle was promoted to Assistant General Manager on June 14, 1995 and named Sr. Advisor, Baseball Operations on February 28, 1997. Engle was also responsible for overseeing all the Jays Latin American operations beginning in 1996.

Engle graduated from Cornwall (PA) High School in 1964. He is a member of the Pennsylvania Hall of Fame (Central PA chapter). After serving three years in the US Army in Karlsruhe, Germany he attended Mesa College (Grand Junction, CO) in 1969-1970, transferring to the University of Colorado, Boulder graduating in 1973. Bob was named to the NJCAA Golden Anniversary Team, JUCO Tournament in May, 2007.

He began his career in professional baseball when he was hired as the Midwest scouting supervisor by the Baltimore Orioles in 1974.

Engle and his wife Barbara reside in Tampa, FL. They have three daughters: Melisa, Amy and Jennifer.

TONY BLENGINO*Special Assistant to the GM - Baseball Operations

Tony Blengino, 45, joined the Mariners front of ce as a Special Assistant to the General Manager on Nov. 10, 2008.

Tony oversees the Mariners statistical analysis for player evaluation on amateur, minor league and Major League players, as well as overseeing the club's Major League advance scouting staff. Tony will work closely with Jack Zduriencik and assist in all aspects of baseball operations.

Blengino spent the last six seasons with the Milwaukee Brewers organization, including the last three years as the assistant scouting director under Jack Zduriencik. In that position, he assisted the scouting director in all aspects of amateur scouting and was responsible for scouting in Canada and the independent leagues.

Prior to joining the Brewers in 2003, Blengino was a Certified Public Accountant and served as the CFO of the National Kidney Foundation of Delaware Valley in Philadelphia. He also authored the book "Future Stars," an annual scouting and statistical review of minor league prospects. He is a member of SABR (Society of American Baseball Research).

Blengino graduated from St. Joseph's University in 1985 with a degree in accounting. A native of Magnolia, NJ, Blengino and his wife, Kathleen, reside in Seattle with their two children: Jessica and Anthony.

CARMEN FUSCO*Director, Professional Scouting

Carmen Fusco was named Director, Professional Scouting for the Mariners on Nov. 10, 2008. He is responsible for overseeing the Mariners scouting of all of professional baseball, including the hiring and training the pro scouting staff.

Fusco, who is in his 35th year working in baseball, spent the past four years as the founder, owner and operator of the Carmen Fusco Professional Baseball and Softball Academy in Etters, PA. While running the academy, he also scouted for Montreal and, immediately prior to joining Seattle, Milwaukee.

Fusco began his scouting career with the Padres, Reds and Cardinals while coaching Austin Peay State University (1975) and Middle Tennessee State (1976-80). In 1980, he was named a regional supervisor with the New York Mets, and he spent the next decade in a variety of scouting roles with them.

From 1990-93, he was a Special Assistant to the GM in San Diego, and he returned (with Joe McIlvane) to the Mets in the same role. He was appointed Director of Pro Scouting with New York in 1996, and worked as Asst. GM/Director of Pro Scouting from 1997-2003. After spending one season (2004) as Asst. GM/Director of Scouting Development, he resigned to open the Carmen Fusco Professional Baseball and Softball Academy.

A New Castle, PA, native, Fusco graduated from Middle Tennessee State University. He and his wife, Linda, reside in Mechanicsburg, PA. They have three sons and two grandchildren.

TOM McNAMARA

Director, Amateur Scouting

Tom McNamara was named Director, Amateur Scouting for the Mariners on Nov. 10, 2008. He is responsible for overseeing the Mariners scouting operation, including preparation for the June Draft.

McNamara, 43, returns to his baseball roots with the Mariners. He was previously an area scout for the Mariners from 1994-2000, covering the Northeast, and signing, among others, Kevin Gryboski and Brian Sweeney. McNamara also played one season in the Mariners organization, appearing in 50 games for the Bellingham

Mariners in 1988.

McNamara has 15 years of experience as a full-time scout. He spent the 2008 season as the Milwaukee Brewers East Coast cross checker. He previously served as a pro scout with the San Diego Padres for five seasons (2003-07). As an area scout for the Brewers during the 2001-02 seasons, McNamara scouted and signed three Major Leaguers, including All-Star first baseman Prince Fielder.

Following his playing career, McNamara coached at Rockland Community College in Suffern, NY.

McNamara is a Pearl River, NY, native. He attended Dominican College in New York and set the NY State College record for stolen bases in a season with 71 in 1988. McNamara is single, and resides in Seattle.

PEDRO GRIFOL

Director, Minor League Operations

Pedro Grifol is in his 10th season with the Mariners, his first since being promoted to Director of Minor League Operations on Nov. 17, 2008. He spent the previous three seasons (2006-08) as the Mariners Coordinator of Instruction.

From 2003-2005, Pedro managed the Mariners short-A Everett club. He was Seattle's scout in charge of south Florida and Puerto Rico from 2000-2005.
